Mission Statement

The OBX Homebrewers are dedicated to fostering a vibrant community of homebrewing enthusiasts. Our mission is to share knowledge and promote the art and science of homebrewing through collaborative learning and knowledge exchange. We enhance skills by improving our brewing techniques and expanding our understanding of brewing processes. We cultivate community, enjoying the camaraderie of fellow brewers through tastings, discussions, and social events. We celebrate craft by organizing and participating in brewing competitions, both within the club and externally. We educate and empower, serving as a resource for aspiring and experienced homebrewers, promoting responsible brewing practices.

About Us

The OBX Homebrewers, established in 2012 by Thomas Welch in Southern Shores, North Carolina, is a community of passionate homebrewers. Founded on the principles of shared learning, camaraderie, and the enjoyment of craft beer, our club has grown into a thriving hub for local brewers. We typically meet on the first Thursday of each month. We operate without annual membership fees, relying on occasional fundraising events to support club activities.
